DECLARATION OF CITIZENSHIP, ALIENAGE, AND IMMIGRATION STATUS FOR HOMEOWNER AND RENTER ASSISTANCE

FIRST NAME	MIDDLE INITIAL	LAST NAME	SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER
------------	----------------	-----------	------------------------

Citizens of the United States who meet all eligibility requirements may receive homeowner or renter assistance. To receive assistance, you must complete Sections A and C that follow.

California residents who are not citizens, but meet all eligibility requirements may also receive homeowner or renter assistance and must complete Sections A, B, and C.

NOTE: In this document we refer to the Immigration and Nationality Act as INA.

SECTION A: CITIZENSHIP DECLARATION

1. Are you a United States citizen?      Yes    ☐      No    ☐

If you checked "Yes", go to Section C. If you checked "No" and you meet all eligibility requirements, please complete Sections B and C.

SECTION B: ALIEN STATUS DECLARATION

General Information

If you are a California resident, but not a United States citizen, you may file a claim for homeowner or renter assistance if you meet the income, age, blindness, or disability requirements for assistance and are one of the following:

- A qualified alien
- A nonimmigrant alien under the INA or
- An alien paroled into the United States under Section 212(d)(5) of the INA for less than one year

We describe these categories of aliens further in the code chart that follows. Undocumented aliens and aliens not described in the code chart are not eligible to receive homeowner or renter assistance.

Instructions

If you are a California resident, but not a United States citizen, please provide your alien registration number and date of entry below. Next, find the category listed on the following Eligibility Code Chart For Noncitizens (See Side 2) that accurately describes your presence or admission to the United States. Find the alien status code letter for your category and enter it below.
